

CASE STUDY

NNN Properties / Surmount x Madison Ave Consulting

Ten weeks to live on Salesforce.

NNN Pro (now Surmount) is a leader in single-tenant net lease investment services. Nationwide coverage.

Personalized, in-person service. Their 2024 initiative: revamp Salesforce to support highly custom business lines in ten weeks.

The Challenge

Custom CRE workflows on a tight timeline

The Ask

Rebuild account, contact, and deal tracking from the ground up. Integrate a critical external system. Train the team onsite. Go live in ten weeks.

Custom Deal Processes

Leasing, advisory, and development each required distinct, highly tailored workflows.

DealPath Integration

A critical external system that had to connect seamlessly with the new Salesforce environment.

Hard Go-Live Date

Onsite training and full deployment locked inside a ten-week window. No flexibility.

The Solution

Full-cycle Salesforce implementation

re sales by amount, close date, status, region, and lead source.

Madison Ave Consulting delivered a comprehensive rebuild of the Salesforce environment. Every component built to fit NNN's business. Nothing generic.

Accounts and Contacts

Custom tracking rebuilt from the ground up for CRE workflows.

Deal Processes

Tailored pipelines for Leasing, Advisory, and Development business lines.

DealPath Integration

Transaction data flowing directly into Salesforce. Accounting and commissions migrated.

Salesforce Maps

Market analysis and territory management built for a national footprint.

Marketing Center

Sales and marketing aligned on one platform.

Conga Docs

Document and proposal generation automated and ready at go-live.

The Results

Delivered on time. On budget.

10

Weeks

Kickoff to go-live. January 5 to March 4.

1,225

Project Hours

Total hours delivered across the full engagement.

Change Orders

Business Lines

Leasing, Advisory, and Development unified in one platform.

Beyond Go-Live

Madison Ave Beyond managed services

Go-live is not the finish line. After launch, NNN continued with Madison Ave Beyond managed services to keep the platform improving and scaling with their business.

Bi-Weekly Backlog Cadence

Structured prioritization keeps the roadmap moving.

Technical Guidance

Senior expertise on demand. No ramp-up required.

Flexible Scale

Support grows as NNN grows. Built for momentum.
