

CASE STUDY

MadHive x Madison Ave Consulting

Salesforce for the programmatic CTV leader.

MadHive is the leading programmatic CTV advertising platform built for local markets. Based in NYC, they power advertising for broadcasters and advertisers across the country.

Since July 2020, multiple initiatives

Madison Ave Consulting has been MadHive's Salesforce consulting partner since the very first implementation. Our work has touched every layer of their Salesforce environment.

Sales Cloud

Full Sales Cloud implementation from the ground up.

2

Slack Integration

Real-time team visibility across the organization.

3

Products Catalog

Programmatic ad product catalog built inside Salesforce.

4

DocuSign

Streamlined contract workflows end to end.

5

Data Migration

Clean transition from legacy systems with zero data loss.

6

Conga Contracts

Legal operations powered by automated contract management.

WHY IT WORKS

A partner that understands media velocity

Speed matters in programmatic. We built an engagement model to match it.

AOD Model

Admin on Demand engagement for consistent, reliable capacity.

Senior Talent

Experienced Salesforce professionals embedded with their team.

Industry Fluency

Deep understanding of programmatic ad workflows and media cadence.

Continuous Evolution

Platform grows alongside MadHive. No deliver-and-walk-away.

THE BIGGER PICTURE

Media moves fast. Programmatic moves faster.

MadHive needed a Salesforce partner who could keep pace with both and evolve the platform continuously instead of delivering and walking away.

Ongoing Partnership

Active since July 2020 with no gaps in delivery.

Full Stack Coverage

Every layer of Salesforce touched and optimized.

Media Native

Built for the speed and complexity of ad tech.
