

CASE STUDY

NNN Properties / Surmount x Madison Ave Consulting

Ten weeks to live on Salesforce.

NNN Pro (now Surmount) is a leader in single-tenant net lease investment services. Nationwide coverage.

Personalized, in-person service. Their 2024 initiative: revamp Salesforce to support highly custom business lines in ten weeks.

The Challenge

CUSTOM CRE WORKFLOWS ON A TIGHT TIMELINE

Custom Deal Processes

Highly specialized workflows across leasing, advisory, and development. No off-the-shelf solution would cut it.

Critical Integration

DealPath as an external system required seamless, reliable integration from day one.

Ground-Up Rebuild

Account, contact, and deal tracking rebuilt from scratch to match NNN's exact business model.

Ten-Week Clock

Onsite training and go-live target locked in. No room for delays.

The Solution

FULL-CYCLE SALESFORCE IMPLEMENTATION

Madison Ave Consulting delivered a comprehensive rebuild of the Salesforce environment. Every component built to fit NNN's business. Nothing generic.

Account and Contact Tracking

Custom objects and relationships built for CRE workflows.

Business Line Deal Processes

Tailored pipelines for Leasing, Advisory, and Development.

DealPath Integration

Live transaction data flowing directly into Salesforce.

Salesforce Maps

Market analysis and territory management built in.

Accounting and Commissions

Full data model migrated from DealPath.

Marketing Center and Conga

Sales and marketing alignment plus document and proposal generation.

The Results

DELIVERED ON TIME. ON BUDGET.

10

Weeks Start to Live

Kickoff January 5. Onsite training February 27. Go-live March 4.

1,225

0

Change Orders

One Unified View

Leasing, Advisory, and Development all operating on a single, connected Salesforce platform.

Beyond Go-Live

MADISON AVE BEYOND MANAGED SERVICES

Go-live is not the finish line. After launch, NNN continued with Madison Ave Beyond managed services to keep the platform improving.
